John Ellison was born into a Nevada ranching family. His political career began in 1993, when he was first elected to the Elko City Council, serving there for eight years. He was later elected to the Elko County Commission, and subsequently to the Nevada State Assembly in 2010. During the 2019 Legislative Session, John was the Co-Deputy Minority Leader and served on the Assembly Government Affairs, Assembly Growth and Infrastructure, and Assembly Natural Resources, Agriculture and Mining Committees. He was Chair of the Government Affairs Committee and Speaker Pro Tempore in 2015.

Assemblyman Ellison's efforts led to him receiving the highest score of any Nevada legislator from both the American Conservative Union and Nevada Policy Research Institute for the 80th Legislative Session.

What you missed at the March luncheon

WRW was pleased to welcome Dr. Linda Lee Tarver as the guest speaker for the March 17th luncheon. Dr. Tarver is a well-known expert on voting integrity. She methodically laid out the preponderance of evidence that exists regarding the widespread voter fraud that took place in the 2020 Presidential Election. While the outcome of the election left many in the country quite dismayed, Dr. Tarver was quick to point out that maintaining a positive attitude and recommitting to a strengthening of our grassroots effort at the state and local level is incredibly important to the future of fair and free elections.

Let's Grow Our Club!

WRW Membership continues to grow! With 70 members, WRW has achieved 90% of the 2020 Membership in just 3 months. We encourage you to bring a friend to the April Luncheon and join in the fun, fellowship, and political action. There is a place for you at our table!

"Let's do this again!"

That was the sentiment from all those gathered at the Year of Ox Wine Tasting on Saturday, February 27th. If you were there you know exactly what we mean. A great time was had by all. Sam Williamson, the scion of the Williamson Winery family, was on hand to pour some of their wonderful wines. The evening started with Bliss Sparkling Shiraz and with very little arm twisting the assembled group of wine aficionados managed to work their way through 5 additional wines. Each wine was paired with a delicate assortment of mouthwatering dishes prepared by members of the WRW team. Thank you to the following for Silent Auction donations: The Club at ArrowCreek, Glenda & Lee Gilmore, Steph and John Hanzlik, Barb & Brian Hawn, Michon Kessler, Lindy & Mike Leonard, Mimi Swearngin and Williamson Wines.
