

VOL.2 ISSUE 12
DECEMBER 2022

Empowering Republican women to have an important voice at the political table

I want to start by thanking our members for the time and effort they put into the 2022 mid-term election. We set out to make a difference and in the end we were successful. WRW achieved much more than was expected in the beginning. I am proud of our club for stepping up with phone calling, walking neighborhoods, hosting fund-raisers, attending rallies, wearing candidate's shirts and supporting the election efforts at the other clubs. Good news!

The Republican Party now holds the House with seven new Republican women members. In addition to every Republican incumbent governor being re-elected, Joe Lombardo is now our Nevada Governor! Congressional candidates received 43.3 million more votes than Democrats and won 51.3% of the total vote. I urge each one of us to lend our support for Herschel Walker, candidate for U.S. Senate in Georgia. Send your support soon, the election is December 6th. Thank you for a job well done! I look forward to starting a new year and encourage members to renew their membership. Husbands can also join as an associate! 2023 will be an exciting year. At the January meeting WRW will be announcing two new major programs for our club; ones you will not want to miss. Please join us for our WRW Christmas Party. See invitation below. Many religious events are celebrated during this time of the year and I wish you the merriest of holidays.

For me, it is Merry Christmas to all and a Happy New Year!

November Luncheon

November's luncheon meeting was a year-end gala event with all enjoying a Holiday Fashion Show of gorgeous outfits and fabulous furs modeled by our own WRW members. Many thanks to William Furs and Terri O'brien, owner of Boutique Elegante for their generous support. Each attendee received a gift from the club, custom soaps from The Genoa Soap Company. What a wonderful way to ring in the holiday season.

NFRW Conference Las Vegas 2022

President Glenda and 2nd VP Day recently attended the NFRW Conference in Las Vegas on November. One of the highlights was hearing from four Holocaust survivors who spoke with amazing empathy, remembrance, and dignity for others. "Each of their stories were very sobering and heartfelt," shared Day.

"We will never forget our freedom," was their collective mantra. They left the audience with this important reminder, "Remain vigilante, stay strong and always remember."

Another outstanding speaker, Jeff Griffin, shared that he has never subscribed to the words, "I can't." He urged us to "Concentrate on what we CAN DO instead of what we Can't do." His parting words were: "Dream.... Desire.... DO, because where thoughts go...energy flows." Great thoughts for us all after our recent election. Let's plan for 2024!

Americanism by Jane Hillerby

BILL OF RIGHTS

Shortly after the ratification of the United States Constitution in 1789, Congress added ten amendments to the document guaranteeing American citizens a long list of basic rights and liberties. The Bill of Rights, as it became known, was written largely by James Madison to address the concerns of many Americans that the original Constitution, as written at the 1787 Philadelphia convention, did not explicitly protect individual liberties. (Oppenheim, 2007) The Bill of Rights defined the basic legal protections for American citizens. A summary of the ten amendments is below:

Amendment 1 - Freedom of Religion, Speech, Press, Assembly, and Petition

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

Amendment 2 – Right to Bear Arms

A well-regulated Militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed.

Amendment 3 – Quartering of Soldiers

No Soldier shall, in time of peace be quartered in any house, without the consent of the Owner, nor in time of war, but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

Amendment 4 – Search & Seizure

The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no Warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by Oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.

Amendment 5 - Grand Jury, Double Jeopardy, Self-Incrimination, Due Process, Takings

No person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a Grand Jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the Militia, when in actual service in time of War or public danger; nor shall any person be subject for the same offense to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself, nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use, without just compensation.

Amendment 6 - Right to Speedy Trial by Jury, Witnesses, Counsel

In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of the State and district wherein the crime shall have been committed, which district shall have been previously ascertained by law, and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the Assistance of Counsel for his defense.

Amendment 7 – Jury Trial in Civil Lawsuits

In Suits at common law, where the value in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, the right of trial by jury shall be preserved, and no fact tried by a jury, shall be otherwise reexamined in any Court of the United States, than according to the rules of the common law.

Amendment 8 - Excessive Fines, Cruel and Unusual Punishment

Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishments inflicted.

Amendment 9 - Non-Enumerated Rights Retained by People

The enumeration in the Constitution, of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.

Amendment 10 - Rights Reserved to States or People

The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people.

(National Constitution Center - Bill of Rights, 2022)

Ratification of the ten amendments was swift, although some Americans, including Alexander Hamilton, argued that they were unnecessary. With ratification by three-fourths of the states, the Bill of Rights became official in 1791. (Oppenheim, 2007)
