Committee Reports

Armed Services: Lindy Leonard

We remembered our Fallen. . . .

On Saturday, December 19th, WRW participated in Wreaths Across America to remember and honor our veterans through the laying of Remembrance wreaths on the graves of our country's fallen heroes and the act of saying the name of each and every veteran aloud.

GREAT NEWS!!!!

WRW is now in contact with Northern Nevada Honor Flight. They will be notifying us of the various activities for 2020. Our involvement can be time or donations, or both. We will be looking at other military and Veteran charities throughout the year. We will keep you posted!!

Literacy: Judi Rettich

You're very welcome to attend our WRW Book Club Meetings. You don't have to read the book! You can join us any month and just enjoy the conversation and our very informal book review. But, please RSVP to our January Host, Pauline Gerscovich!

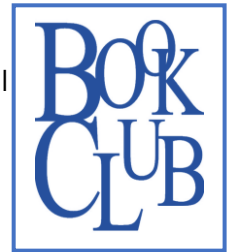

Future Information: We usually meet on the 2nd Thursday of the month although this month we are meeting on the 3rd Thursday. We change hosts and locations every month. For more information call or text: Judi Rettich, 717-725-2006.

January WRW Book Club Meeting

Time: Thursday 16 (3rd Thurs) 3pm

Book: Three Days at the Brink
FDRs Daring Gamble to Win WWII
Author: Bret Baier

Place: Pauline Gerscovich home
9320 Hidden Park Drive
Reno NV 89523
775-746-4389
PLEASE RSVP to Pauline

Youth Outreach (YOP): Kim Bacchus

At our November meeting, the membership voted to create a standing committee for Youth Outreach. With that decision came the establishment of a line item in our budget for our outreach projects. The Committee is extremely grateful for your vote of confidence.

We will not disappoint you.

We are in the process of working directly with the UNR College Republican President, Tanner Dufree, to determine how WRW can be most impactful. Navigating the muddy waters of being a Republican on a college campus can be challenging. However, we are confident, with direct collaboration with Tanner, that we will find effective and realistic outreach opportunities in the upcoming semester.

Outreach

Stay tuned!

Membership: Glenda Gilmore

GREAT NEWS! As we begin 2020, we now have 42 regular members and 15 Associates. We are looking forward to increasing our membership this year. We have only just begun!

Key Upcoming Events Information

Honoring our POW/MIA Veterans in a Special Way

The Missing Man Table

As you enter the room on January 15, you may notice a special table; it is reserved to honor our missing men and women. The flags represent the men and women missing from each of the six services – Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force, and Coast Guard---and civilians, all with us in spirit.

Though some are too young to remember when the Vietnam War began, all Americans should never forget the brave men and women who answered our Nation's call and served the cause of freedom in a special way.

Getting Ready for the 2020 Elections

What is next and how can I get involved?

The Nevada Revised Statutes requires that the major political parties hold precinct meetings and a convention every two years. In a Presidential Election year, we have a Caucus where a presidential preference vote for our choice for the U.S. Presidential nominee for our party. This year, because we have an incumbent Republican President, we will only conduct our precinct meetings and have a County Convention.

What is a Precinct meeting and how does the process work?

A Precinct is the starting place of building relationships with and representing your community, particularly those registered as Republican. You will be able to find the location of your precinct meeting by going to www.washoegop.org. At the precinct meeting, members of each precinct will nominate members to the Washoe County Republican Central Committee, elect Delegates and Alternates to the County Convention and discuss what they would like to see on the Republican platform for the County, State and National Republican Party. Learn more about the process of being an elected delegate at the Precinct meetings in your area.

We believe:

1. All members, irrespective of age, education, socio-economic position, ethnicity, culture of origin, or political beliefs are entitled to be treated with equal respect and dignity.
2. All members are free to express differences of opinion and philosophy as long as such disagreement is voiced professionally and with respect for the dignity of other members and the code of conduct in effect for the occasion (e.g., Robert's Rules of Order, etc.).
3. We are more effective and politically influential as members of the NFRW and NvFRW; hence we honor the Bylaws of the Federation structure and work to support organizational programs, policies, plans and strategies.

WHY ARE YOU A REPUBLICAN?

Based on feedback, we have compiled a list of what it means to be a Republican from numerous participants.

I believe that our:

Country is exceptional
Constitution should be honored, valued, and upheld
Leaders should serve people, not special interests
Families and communities should be strong and free from government intrusion
Institution of traditional marriage is the foundation of society
Government should be smaller, smarter and more efficient
Health care decisions should be made by us and our doctors
Paychecks should not be wasted on poorly run government programs
Military must be strong and prepared to defend our shores
Culture should respect and protect life
Children should never be left in failing schools
Veterans should have the best care and opportunities in the world
Social programs should help lift people out of poverty
America should be energy independent

What is your reason? Feel free to add to the list.
